GAMING CONTROL BOARD

Albuquerque, NM 87113
Phone (505) 841-9700
FAX (505) 841-9725

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a licensed gaming employee. Before you submit your application, you should be aware of a few facts.

The gaming industry in New Mexico will be one of the most scrutinized businesses in the state because New Mexico citizens want the industry and everyone involved in it free from even the hint of any corruption or dishonesty. That's why we take our regulation of the industry very seriously, including the issuance of work permits.

During the licensing process, we will conduct a thorough check of your background. This will include, without exception, a criminal background check. It may also involve an examination of your financial records and other documents. If you pass the background investigation, you will be issued a work permit that will allow you to work in a gaming establishment. You should know that a gaming work permit is a privilege, not a right. To be considered for this privilege, you must be thoroughly honest on your license application.

In particular, we ask you on page 3 of the application: "...since you turned age 18, have you ever been arrested, served with a criminal summons, charged with, or convicted of ANY crime or offense in any manner?" The application requires you to explain ALL such arrests or charges regardless of the final outcome.

Here are some of the excuses gaming regulators sometimes hear from people who have failed to disclose arrests:

- My attorney told me I didn't have to disclose.
- I didn't think I was arrested, because I only got a ticket.
- My arrest didn't have anything to do with gaming.
- I didn't think that was still on my record.

Neither these nor any other excuse, however, will justify a failure to disclose your criminal record.

You have been informed throughout this application to disclose ALL arrests. You will not necessarily be denied a license if you have ever been arrested, but you will certainly be denied if you fail to disclose any arrest. If you are not clear about what you need to disclose, call the Gaming Control Board Licensing Division for assistance in answering any questions you might have.

I have read and understand this letter.
